ABOUT OLIVIA

Olivia and Johanna have worked together for over 18 years and they have created and grown SEVEN, Psychology at Work since 2009.

Olivia prides herself on anticipating and delivering to her teams' and clients' needs.

WORK AT SEVEN

Olivia is SEVEN's LYNCHPIN!

As Practice Manager, Olivia is a key point of contact for clients. She ensures excellence in our client service at all stages of the relationship.

Olivia has an in-depth knowledge of our client's projects and is very attuned to their needs. She is an expert task juggler and unflappable in a crisis.

LIFE BEFORE SEVEN

Olivia previously worked for an international business psychology practice. Starting out as PA to Johanna and then progressing to the role of Office Manager. She has a wealth of experience supporting professionals with client coordination, client communications, presentation creation, tendering, supplier management and administration.

APPROACH TO POSITIVE CHANGE

Olivia's effectiveness allows SEVEN's Psychologists to focus on and enable positive change for our clients. She is the first port of call for most clients and embodies our brand and approach by being professional, accessible, caring and efficient.

Olivia really takes care of SEVEN's people and those we work with.

MORE ABOUT OLIVIA

Olivia is a dedicated mother and enjoys balancing a busy home life with her role at SEVEN. Whether at home or in the office, she is passionate about doing things well and delivering on her commitments.

Olivia loves to travel, to go for very long country strolls and enjoys family cycle trips. Olivia also steps up regularly to volunteer support for her local National School and football club!
